

Omission of adverse event reporting on finerenone

Mayer Brezis<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup>Affiliation not available

May 4, 2022

Abstract

We wish to describe the omission of adverse event reporting on finerenone in a recently published trial. We suspect that this case illustrates the tip of an iceberg of underreporting of adverse events in clinical trials. We propose as a requirement in clinical trials, to have routine direct reporting by patients for safety monitoring.

Hosted file

Omission of adverse event reporting on finerenone with title & author.pdf available at <https://authorea.com/users/480445/articles/567868-omission-of-adverse-event-reporting-on-finerenone>